

Robert G. Bohn
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Robert G. Bohn was appointed CEO in October 1997 and chairman in January 2000. Prior to becoming chairman and CEO, Bohn was president and chief operating officer for Oshkosh Corporation. He also held the position of president of Pierce Manufacturing Inc. since the company's acquisition by Oshkosh Corporation in September 1996. Bohn led Pierce's corporate management team and had overall responsibility for sales and marketing, manufacturing operations, quality, new product development and purchasing at the company.

Since joining Oshkosh in May 1992 as Group Vice President - Manufacturing, Bohn has overseen a substantial reduction in manufacturing hours for commercial vehicles and reductions of inventory space and cost. He was elected to the position as President and Chief Operating Officer of Oshkosh Corporation in February 1994. At that time he was named a member of Oshkosh's Board of Directors, a position he holds in addition to his responsibilities as chairman and CEO of Oshkosh Corporation.

Bohn has extensive experience in growth strategy development and execution, international market development, acquisitions integration, and in maximizing operational efficiency. He came to Oshkosh Corporation from Johnson Controls European Operations, where he spent considerable time as a global manager. He has served as a director of the Company since 1995 and is also a director of Graco, Inc. and Menasha Corporation.
